Winter Art fair 2–3 December, 2016

Eastside Projects

Eastside Projects are thrilled to invite you to the 2016 Winter Art Fair. This lively two-day event will see the gallery filled with affordable artworks, artist books and editions, music, homemade refreshments and will showcase independent artists and self publishers from the West Midlands and beyond.

An eclectic gathering of both local and national artists, curators and publishers, the Winter Art fair will celebrate and promote a diverse range of artistic practices and be the perfect place to snap up unique Christmas gifts and affordable works of art.

The fair will launch during December's Digbeth Friday Friday and will feature limited edition prints, books, small sculptures, paintings, zines, an art raffle and lots more. Contributors confirmed so far include Rope Press, Two Queens Studio, Simon Bayliss, Cathy Wade, Grand Union Gallery, William Cobbing, Richard Stenton, Rafal Zar, Jamie & Rickie McNeil, Gregor Wright, Owen Piper, Sarah Taylor Silverwood, Andrew Lacon, Andrew Gillespie, Dale Hipkiss & Jonathan Graney. Black Pleasure bar will be taken over by Foodsketz, a project by artists Alison Clare & Cat Smith, who will be offering homemade food, tea, cocktails and conversations and music will be provided by Queerzone3000.

Come along, meet the artists behind the works and take home something extraordinary.

2. Eastside Projects makes art public. We are an artist-run multiverse, commissioning, producing and presenting experimental art practices and demonstrating ways in which art may be useful as part of society. Alongside imagining, testing and modeling a free public gallery, we are increasingly engaged in an expanded range of public activities – we devise public art strategies, serve as commissioning agents, produce national public art programmes and create structures to support artists locally, nationally and internationally. Eastside Projects is open Wednesday-Saturday, 12–5pm. www.eastsideprojects.org
